

FEATURES OF THE HOLY QUR'AN

Dear mumins!

Islam, the only true religion of Allah (swt), contains material and spiritual laws. Therefore, it is extremely important that every Muslim knows the laws of happiness in Islam which are included in the Quran. What does the Quran, the word of Allah (swt), say and what kind of messages are given to us? The Quran teaches us salvation, love, brotherhood and to believe in Allah (swt). The Quran is the only remedy that will lead us to salvation in the world and hereafter. The Prophet (pbuh) "told his companions that he would leave two very important treasures behind him, and as long as they were followed then everyone would live a trouble free life. One of them is Allah's (swt) book the Quran, and the other one is the Prophet's (pbuh) Sunna"(1) The Quran was sent by Allah (swt) so that we can read and learn from Allah's (swt) words and practice Allah's (swt) teachings.

The Quran, source of knowledge and virtue, illuminates the material and spiritual world of humanity. Even non-Muslim scholars often refer to the Quran and accept the value of our Holly Book. The Quran is not a book written by a human nor is it just a list of do's and don'ts. The Quran is the word of Allah (swt). That is why our Holly Book will never get old or out-dated. The Quran will always stay fresh, new and perfect. Every verse in the Quran inspires people to live their lives to the fullest.

Reading the Quran and trying to understand its meaning is the same as worshipping Allah (swt). The purpose of reading the Quran is to know the purpose of worship, to get rid of the stress in our souls and to eliminate feelings of loneliness. If people read the Quran for these reasons then.
